

U.S. COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS SEEKS VOLUNTEERS FOR COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS AND PRACTICE

The United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims is now considering applications from members of the Court's bar to serve on the Court's Committee on Admissions and Practice.

The Committee, governed by Rule 2 of the Court's Rules of Admissions and Practice (Rules), investigates allegations of attorney misconduct referred to it by the Court. At the request of the practitioner concerned or by order of the Court, the Committee may conduct a private hearing during its investigation phase. The Committee then submits to the Court a report and recommendation based on the Committee's investigation and review.

Committee members are appointed by the Chief Judge with concurrence of the Court, and are eligible to serve for a term of three years. Members may be reappointed to one additional consecutive term. For each case, three Committee members are randomly chosen from the full Committee roster (currently 9) to serve on a panel of three Committee members.

How to Apply: The Court requests that applications be submitted by February 15, 2018. Interested parties should submit a cover letter and resume to the Executive Assistant to the Clerk of the Court, Gregory O. Block, at DBraquet@uscourts.cavc.gov. For more information, please call 202-501-5970, x 1017. Additionally, current Committee Members may be contacted at the addresses provided on the Court's website at <http://www.uscourts.cavc.gov/cap.php>.
